

Chapter 13

Bearing Fruit for the Kingdom of Heaven

Believers will not be chosen to enter the kingdom of heaven as a leader if they haven't born any fruit for the kingdom. They are required to teach others the qualifications for leadership which are obedience, good works and bearing fruit. This is the primary goal that all believers were created for. So every believer is required to teach the word of the kingdom to others so that they can qualify to be chosen.

Yahuah created billions of angels to rule His kingdom. After Satan rebelled, Yahuah created man to take authority over the angels. Yahuah has spent 6000 years training man to rule over the earth. Adam and the Israelites failed to qualify. Yahusha has been chosen as the King, and the Holy Spirit has spent the last 2000 years obtaining fruit for the kingdom of heaven by training believers to qualify to be chosen to be His bride to help Him rule over the earth. Unfortunately, most believers will not qualify to be chosen, because they have not been taught the required qualifications. This was Yahusha's primary message and the main subject of all scripture. So the primary responsibility of the believer is to bear fruit for the kingdom.

Satan, the adversary, has continually destroyed believers and their writings to prevent believers from replacing him as ruler over the earth. He has murdered millions of believers who have attempted to qualify as leaders and teach others to qualify. This has caused untold poverty, violence and persecution of believers. This has caused most believers to be unaware of the word of the kingdom. But this persecution purifies the character of obedient believers who are not deceived and attempt to teach the word of the kingdom, if they ever get to learn it.

The creation of man to rule the earth is the main subject of the Bible. Yahusha's main message to mankind while He was on earth was how to qualify to be chosen to be a leader in the kingdom of heaven. One of the primary requirements is to bear fruit for the kingdom.

Matthew 4:17-23 "From that time Yahusha began to preach and to say 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.'... 'Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men.’... And Yahusha went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom,”

Matthew 13:44 “The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and hid; and for the joy over it he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.”

Very few believers have found the kingdom of heaven because it is so well hidden. Very few believers will qualify to enter it because they don’t know how. The wealthiest people in the world would give everything they have to qualify to enter it because it is so wonderful and it lasts forever. It is amazing that the believers today only teach how to obtain eternal life, which only takes a moment. But they don’t train believers how to qualify for leadership in the kingdom, which takes a lifetime of good works. They must be taught to be obedient to the law, do good works and bear fruit for the kingdom during their whole life on earth. The qualifications to be chosen are based entirely on works. (1Corinthians 3:11-15)

There are many scriptures that establish the requirement that a believer must bear fruit to qualify to be chosen to be a leader in the kingdom. Believers must help to train other believers to qualify to be chosen. Raising children to qualify may be one of the best ways to bear fruit, motivating believers to get married and have children.

Matthew 25:14-30 “For the kingdom of heaven is like a man traveling to a far country, who called his own servants and delivered his goods to them. And he gave to one five talents, ... Then he who had received the five talents went and traded them, and made another five talents. ... After a long time the lord of those servants came ... and he brought the five other talents; ... His lord said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant; you were faithful over a few things. I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.’... ”

Then he who had received one talent came and said. ... I was afraid, and went and hid your talent in the ground. ... But his lord said to him, ‘You wicked and lazy servant ... cast the unprofitable servant into outer darkness.’”

Luke 19:12-27 “A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom and to return. So He called ten of his servants, delivered to them ten minas, and said to them, ‘Do business until I return.’ But his citizens hated him, and sent a delegation after him, saying, ‘We will not have this man to reign over us.’”

“And so it was that when he returned, having received the kingdom, he then commanded these servants, to whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.”

“Then came the first, saying, ‘Master, your mina has earned ten minas.’ And he said to him, ‘Well done, good servant; because you were faithful in very little, have authority over ten cities.’ And the second came, saying, ‘Master, your mina has earned five minas.’ Likewise he said to him, ‘You also be over five cities.’”

“Then another came, saying, ‘Master, here is your mina, which I have kept put away in a handkerchief. For I feared you, ... And he said to him, ‘Out of your own mouth I will judge you, you wicked servant. ... Why then did you not put my money in the bank, that at my coming I might have collected interest?’ And he said to those who stood by, ‘Take the mina from him, and give it to him who has ten minas. ... For I say to you, that to everyone who has will be given; and from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.’”

These are strong parables that say Yahusha expects believers to bear fruit while He is away. Those who do bear fruit, will inherit authority in His kingdom. Those who do not bear fruit will suffer loss.

Matthew 13:19-23 “When anyone hears the word of the kingdom ... and understands it, [he will] indeed bear fruit and produce: some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.”

Luke 3:9 “every tree which does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown in the fire.” (Matthew 3:10; 7:19)

John 15:1-8 “I am the true vine, and the Father is the vine dresser. Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit He takes away, and every branch that bears fruit He prunes, that it may bear more fruit. ... He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me you can do nothing.”

“If anyone does not abide in Me, he is cast out as a branch and is withered; and they gather them and throw them into the fire, and they are burned.”

“If you abide in Me and My words abide in you, you will ask what you desire, and it will be done for you. By this My Father is glorified that you bear much fruit; so you will be My disciples.”

1 Peter 1:7 “you have been grieved by various trials, that the genuineness of your faith, being much more precious than gold that perishes, though it is tested by fire, may be found to praise, honor, and glory at the revelation of Yahusha the Messiah.”

All the servants and branches that are punished in outer darkness or burned in the fire are believers who did not bear fruit. Outer darkness is in heaven outside the gates of the city of New Jerusalem. In the city, everyone shines like the sun. (Daniel 12:3). Yahusha uses fire as a metaphor for trials, tribulation and persecution to purify the character of believers like silver and gold is purified by fire. But the unprofitable believer will still be saved, living outside the gates of the city. (1 Corinthians 3:11-15; Revelation 22:14,15).

It is clear from these scriptures that a believer must bear fruit for the kingdom to qualify to be chosen to enter the gate to life in the city of New Jerusalem, the paradise and headquarters of the kingdom of heaven, as the bride of Yahusha to rule over the nations on earth.

Matthew 9:37,33 “The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray the Master of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest.”

There are an abundance of believers who have been called, but there are very few who know the word of the kingdom to teach them. To bear fruit for the kingdom, the believers must be taught to be obedient to the law, be filled with the power of the Holy Spirit, honor the name of Yahuah, do good works and bear fruit for the kingdom. Very few people are being taught that today.

The word of the kingdom is about how to qualify to be chosen as a leader in the headquarters of heaven. Most believers will not understand it. Many will receive it with joy, but when opposition comes from other believers against praying in tongues, keeping the Sabbath, obedience to the law, and honoring the names of Yahuah and Yahusha, they will turn away from the message. They do not have enough spiritual maturity or confidence to turn against the traditions of their family and friends. Imagine believers turning away from the name of Jesus or against worshiping on the day of the sun god, or celebrating the birthday of the sun god on December 25th.

It takes a spiritually mature, independent individual willing to obey the scriptures when the entire world is practicing other traditions that were established by the Roman church 1700 years ago. Other people will have difficulty avoiding the lust of the flesh, the deceitfulness of riches and the desire for other things. It takes a mature, spirit filled believer to focus on the hope of glory in the paradise of Yahuah, while facing opposition. Satan's priority is to prevent believers from bearing fruit for the kingdom. He will try many ways to stop them, including putting opposition within the ministry.

Matthew 13:24-30 “The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field; but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat. ... Let both grow together until the harvest, and at the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, ‘First gather together the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into my barn.’”

Matthew 13:37-43 “He who sows good seed is the Son of Man. The field is the world, the good seed are the sons of the kingdom, but the tares are the sons of the wicked one. ... The Son of Man will send out His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom all things that offend, and those who practice lawlessness, and will cast them into the furnace of fire. ... Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of the Father.”

The Son of Man is Yahusha's title as the King over all the earth (Daniel 7:13,14). He has sown the word of the kingdom in the New Testament and trained many disciples. But Satan has taught many believers lawlessness, that they don't have to obey the commandments. Consequently the churches today are not bearing fruit for the kingdom. They will be tried by the fire of tribulation until they repent. Those that qualify to enter the kingdom will shine like the sun (Daniel 12:3; Acts 26:13; Revelation 1:16). Those that don't bear fruit for the kingdom will not be chosen to enter it.

Believers have the greatest opportunity the world has ever known to be chosen for the greatest calling that Yahuah has ever designed for man. The field of ministry is wide open with no competition, for almost no one is teaching the word of the kingdom today. A small spark could ignite a worldwide revival of obedience to the law and honor of the name of Yahuah. The reward regardless of the opposition is to be chosen to be a leader in the kingdom of Yahuah.

Revelation 2:23-26 “I will give to each one according to your works. ... hold fast what you have till I come. And he who overcomes and keeps My works until the end, to him I will give power over the nations”

Revelation 3:21 “To him who overcomes I will grant to sit with me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne.”

Revelation 22:12-14 “And behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to give o everyone according to His work. ... Blessed are those who do His commandments, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter through the gates into the city.”

Hallelu Yah!
