This is the most important message that the human race has ever received from the Creator. The highest calling that the Creator ever designed for man. This is the primary message of the Bible, a mystery for 4000 years. It was revealed by the Messiah and his disciples in the first century. But the Roman Church has suppressed it for 2000 years. So nearly every believer in the world today is headed for failure to be chosen to enter the gate to life in the kingdom of heaven, because of worldwide deception. The forces of evil have deceived the world to prevent their loss of authority over the kingdoms of this world. They have killed every messenger that taught this mystery. Consequently, nearly all believers today will be denied entrance into the headquarters of heaven and required to live in outer darkness, unless they wake up and do the will of the Creator.

The word of the kingdom for the salvation of the carnal soul defines the qualifications required to be chosen to enter the gate to life in the headquarters of heaven to receive authority over the world. It also describes the consequences of failure to qualify, suffering loss of life as a leader in the kingdom of heaven because people are not being taught the will of the Creator. They will be denied entrance into the paradise of the city of New Jerusalem and required to spend the 1000 years of peace on earth in outer darkness in heaven. They will have lots of company.

Yahusha, the Messiah, is coming to cleanse the earth of evil. Those believers who meet the qualifications for leadership will be given the responsibility to lead the world in the coming 1000 years of peace. The leaders will be chosen before Yahusha cleanses the earth. So believers must prepare now. This is the glorious message of the word of the kingdom for the salvation of the soul. This is what man was created for, the highest calling the Creator ever designed for man. Now is the time for a great awakening of the believers before the storm. Learn the will of the Creator before it is too late.

The Key to the Kingdom of Heaven

Do believers sometimes feel disconnected with the Church or feel the Bible doesn't make sense? What if they discovered the real name of the heavenly Father appears over 7,000 times in the original text of the Bible, yet most of the 2.5 billion believers do not know His real name? Why does the Bible never say anything about Christmas, Easter eggs and rabbits? Believers celebrate these holidays with non-believers yet ignore the holy days of Sabbaths, Passover, Feast of Unleavened Bread, Pentecost, Trumpets, Atonement, and Feast of Tabernacles. Why does the church worship on Sunday when the Fourth Commandment says to worship on Saturday the Sabbath day? Finally, what if believers knew that going back to the original Biblical text in Hebrew can reveal in the Creator's own words, how He wants to be called, how salvation works and how He commands His believers to worship Him. The truth has been hidden from believers and lost in translation, but has been in plain sight in the Bible verses and commandments known by nearly everyone.

The First and Third Commandments say we are not to mention any other gods before Him or profane His holy name. So why do believers call Him by a title that other gods and people use? Why do they sing, "O Lord, we worship your holy name!" When they don't say what His name is? Is "Lord" or "God" a name or a title? Who decided to replace His name with Lord? The Bible says over 357 times that He wants everyone in the world to know, honor, praise, glorify, fear and call on His name. Our heavenly Father's name is Yahuah. He longs for His children to worship His holy name. Only those who call on His name will be saved. His is the name above every name. He says He is the only savior. Why did His son say He came in His Father's name? Is Jesus His Father's name?

Why does the Bible say believers are saved by grace through faith, not of works, and then spend most of the Bible saying believers can't be saved unless they work hard the rest of their life doing good works? The Bible says believers must tithe, help the poor, and avoid sexual immorality, adultery, stealing and lying, and work hard bearing fruit for the kingdom of heaven.

Why does the Bible say that not everyone who calls Him, "Lord, Lord," and does mighty wonders in His name, will be able to enter the kingdom of heaven because of their lawlessness? Why do many churches say believers don't have to obey the laws of Moses when the New Testament says over 150 times to obey the commandments.

A key to answering these questions is that man is made of three parts: a spirit, a soul and a body¹. If believers re-frame their view of the spirit and soul as separate, many verses in the Bible about salvation and eternal life become clear. Salvation of the Spirit for eternal life happens in a moment of time by grace through faith in the name of Yahusha, not by any work. But salvation of the carnal soul requires a lifetime of work to achieve character traits of love, peace, joy, patience, integrity, humility, obedience and self-control; for leadership in heaven. Salvation of the Spirit brings new life in the spirit, created by the Father, which can never be lost by any works of sin. One cannot destroy the spirit life created by the Father, but sin will disqualify the believer's soul from being chosen for leadership in the kingdom of heaven. Those not chosen will live in heaven outside the gates of the kingdom, along with most believers.

The kingdom of heaven is the heavenly city of New Jerusalem. Only those chosen to be the bride of Yahusha, are allowed to enter the narrow gate to life in the city². All judgment is based on works of obedience and fruitfulness. That is why many are called, but few are chosen for leadership in heaven.

This book is focused on teaching believers to honor the name of the Yahuah, be obedient to His commandments, and be fruitful for the kingdom of heaven. It is a simple matter to call Yahuah and Yahusha by their correct names and observe the required holidays. No mighty Christian leader can argue with the clear commands of the Bible to do these simple things.

The highest calling ever designed for man, is to be chosen to be the bride of Yahusha, and enter the gate to life in the paradise of New Jerusalem, the headquarters of heaven, to rule over the nations. Believers have the awesome and glorious opportunity to teach billions of believers this wonderful truth.

Revelation 22:14 “Blessed are those who do His commandments, that they may have the right to enter through the gates into the city.”
